

Drs. Maybe and Mustbe.

You choose the old doctor before the young one. Why? Because you don't want to entrust your life in inexperienced hands. True, the young doctor may be experienced. But the old doctor must be. You take no chances with Dr. Maybe, when Dr. Mustbe is in reach. Same with medicines as with medicine makers—the long-tried remedy has your confidence. You prefer experience to experiment—when you are concerned. The new remedy may be good—but let somebody else prove it. The old remedy must be good—judged on its record of cures. Just one more reason for choosing AYER'S Sarsaparilla in preference to any other. It has been the standard household sarsaparilla for half a century. Its record inspires confidence—50 years of cures. If others may be good, Ayer's Sarsaparilla must be. You take no chances when you take AYER'S Sarsaparilla.

BULLETIN, 75c. PER MONTH

HIS SOLEMN INITIATION.

It Had a Value and the Candidate Was Alive to the Fact.

"My friend," said the grand high punk-a-punk with sepulchral solemnity, "you now approach that portion of the ordeal of initiation into our noble order in which you will be required to take upon yourself a binding obligation. While this obligation will not conflict with any duty you owe to society, your family, your religion or your country, it is my duty to warn you that it commits you to the performance of what we regard as important and necessary works and to the forsaking of certain things we regard as evils. Bearing this in mind, are you ready to proceed further in this solemn ceremony?"

"I am ready to take the obligation," replied the candidate in a clear, firm voice, "provided it does not deprive me of the privilege of manufacturing and selling the 'housekeeper's friend,' a little device of my own for seeding raisins, grating horseradish, putting scallops around the edge of a pie, opening a tin can, lifting a pan of hot biscuits from the oven without burning yourself and cleaning lamp chimneys. The usual price of this unique article, gentlemen, is 25 cents, but in order to introduce it I will sell it to members of this noble order at the ridiculously low figure of 15 cents, with a further discount to purchasers of six or more. Upon the removal of this hoodwink from my eyes, gentlemen, it will afford me pleasure to read to you a lot of unsolicited testimonials to the merits of the 'housekeeper's friend' from parties who have used it and are thoroughly acquainted with its merits. Go ahead, mister, with the obligation."

He was subsequently tossed in a blanket and treated with great personal disrespect in other ways, but he had no regrets. He had got his work in.—Chicago Tribune.

His Real Worth.

The spirit of thrift which pervades or used to pervade New England is amusingly illustrated in a remark made once by a Vermont farmer.

He had been seriously ill in midsummer, but his strong constitution stood him in good stead and he quickly rallied. On being asked in the autumn how he was feeling, he said cheerfully: "Oh, I'm fair to middling now, thank ye, but anyway it don't make so much difference, seeing the farm's pretty well licked up. If I'd a died in haying or harvesting time, it would have been full $50 damage to me." Then, after a thoughtful interval, he added, "Come to think of it, that's too low a figger—$80 would be nearer."—Youth's Companion.

Why He Hesitated.

Why does this man stand upon the pavement trembling with terror, afraid to enter his own home?

Listen and I will tell you: This afternoon at 8 o'clock he received a letter from his bank, asking him to step round and pay a note that was due. He scribbled the following answer upon a slip of paper:

"Can't possibly do it. Got to meet another little thing this afternoon that won't be put off."

About the same time a messenger boy brought him a note from his wife, asking him to meet her at his office at 4 to go with her to the dentist's.

Of course he got the answers mixed, and he is wondering whether he had better attempt an explanation or set out for Australia.—Strand Magazine.

A Famous Song Rewritten.

Edmund S. Holbrook of Chicago has rewritten "The Star Spangled Banner." In order, as he says, to correct the many defects which he finds in the original. Key's version, he thinks, "is burdened with too much reference to a locality and the affairs of a day in midhistory," and he has remedied all this by "extending the spirit of the poem over a wider field and limiting it to matters of general importance which will obtain for all time."—Exchange.

What He Feared.

"Why do you laugh at his jokes? It isn't possible you understand them, is it?"

"No, but if I didn't laugh he'd try to explain them."—Brooklyn Life.

His Wish.

Old Foggy—In this natural history, Thomas, it states that a thrush feeds its young no fewer than 206 times a day. What have you to say to that? Thomas—Wish I was a young thrush. —Illustrated Bits.

More Like It.

Ferguson—What is the composition of Roquefort cheese? Tipton—Roquefort cheese is not a composition; it is a decomposition.—Boston Transcript.

Quite Possible.

"Miss Flyte, do you think Miss Giggles is laughing at me?" "I can't say, Mr. Softleigh. She often laughs at almost nothing."—Tit-Bits.

Pure Milk Shakes.

The frequent call for cool drink at the Palama Grocery has induced us to set apart a window for the sale of cold drinks. Our milk shakes are delicious, nothing but pure fresh milk, shaved ice and the purest of flavoring syrup being used, which we sell at Celestial price, 5c. per glass. H. CANNON, PALAMA GROCERY, opposite Railway Depot, King street.

BY POLICE AT CALLAO.

Inquiry here confirms the story coming from Lima to the effect that the State Department has lodged a demand with the United States charge of legation at Lima for the release of the mate of the American bark "Uncle John." He was ashore on December 19 last at Callao, and was arrested because of his constant demand for "Rainier Beer." On tap or in bottles at the Criterion Saloon.

If you are interested in the subject of enlarged portraits, it would be worth your while to see the samples at King Bros. at prices ranging from $5.00 to $10.00 frames and all. They can't be beat.

Before giving your order for a portrait, see what King Bros. have to show in crayon enlargements and judge for yourself whether they can give you the best value for your money or not.

Kroeger Pianos, sweetest in tone, Jas. W. Bergstrom, sole agent, cash or installments. Warerooms at G. West's, Masonic Temple. Office at Thrum's Book Store. Tuning and repairing. Telephone 347.

When you have a portrait enlarged see that you get your money's worth. King Bros. have reduced prices to $5.00, $6.50, $7.50 and $10.00 for work that they guarantee to be first-class. They invite comparison.

If you contemplate ordering a portrait enlargement we invite your attention to the superior work we offer and would ask a comparison of prices and workmanship before placing your order. King Bros., Hotel street.

Don't be persuaded to accept what is not really good in enlarged portraits, just because you have given an order for one. King Bros. will give you something infinitely better and cheaper than you can get anywhere else in town.

The Oliver Typewriter is pronounced by experts, the best machine in the world. It has many valuable features, which have to be seen in order to be appreciated. The Oliver can be seen at the office of A. V. Gear, No. 210 King street.

It's one thing to take an order for a portrait and quite another to fill it satisfactorily. King Bros' portraits have always been known to give satisfaction and now that they have reduced their prices so low, an extra inducement is offered. See what they have before you invest.

We don't expect you to give us the preference if what we have to sell is inferior or our prices higher than our rivals, but when we offer a superior article for less money, you do yourself a wrong by not looking into the matter. Call and see our samples of portrait work. King Bros., 110 Hotel street.

Our work is better and our prices are lower for enlarged portrait work than anyone else's. We are not making much at it, but don't let that worry you. If you have anything in this line to be done see our samples first, and you won't regret it. King Bros., 110 Hotel street.
